

Soccer Club Ties King After Three Overtimes

After King got another goal, the game went into the first overtime. In the first overtime, Charlie Mottern scored on a beautiful long range shot which barely looped over the outstretched finger tips of King's goalie. King scored right back to make the score 4-4. These were the only goals scored during the overtime periods. Many times during the course of play the action was marred by tempers flaring up. The ETSU Soccer Club-King College soccer games have become somewhat of a war with King College taking a 5-3 decision earlier in the season. Besides the naturally intense rivalry, another reason for the game getting out of hand was the officiating. It was very poorly officiated,' ETSU Soccer Club's Eddie Rasnick said. ETSU Soccer Club's Manny of Puerto Rico was named the game's most valuable player.

Lady Bucs Place Fourth in Track and Tennis

Both the Lady Buc Track Team and the Lady Buc Tennis Team did well in their respective state tournaments this past weekend. Coach Emily Walker's Track Team finished fourth behind first place Tennessee, second place Memphis State and third place Austin Peay. Kim Harrell of ETSU finished first in the high jump with a jump of 5-9.

ETSU's Linda Millman took second place in the javelin with a throw of 116-4. The Bucs took second place in the 400 meter low hurdles with Roverta Barck's time of

64.6. The meet was held at Clarksville. The Lady Buc Tennis Team, coached by Billie Abney, also finished fourth. 'The girls played well but next year I feel that they will win it,' Abney said. Coming in ahead of ETSU were Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Middle Tennessee State who finished first, second and third. More in depth articles on the Lady Buc Track Team's fine performance and the

ETSU Soccer Club Ties King After Three

By Bill George

The East Tennessee State Soccer Club played King College to a 4-4 stand-off in a game that included three overtimes last Sunday at Memorial Field. The lead seesawed throughout the contest with neither team being able to assert themselves over the other.

Patrick Beedie scored the first goal for ETSU Soccer Club and this is the way the score stood until early in the second period when King College scored two quick goals. ETSU's Ralph Chigura scored the next two goals to give the ETSU Soccer Club a 3-2 lead.

After King got another goal, the game went into the first overtime. In the first overtime, Charlie Mottern scored on a beautiful long range shot which barely looped over the outstretched

finger tips of King's goalie. King scored right back to make the score 4-4. These were the only goals scored during the overtime periods. Many times during the course of play the action was marred by tempers flaring up. The ETSU Soccer Club-King College soccer games have become somewhat of a war with King College taking a 5-3 decision early season. Besides intense rivalry reason for the game out of hand officiating. It

Lady Bucs Place Fourth in Trac

Both the Lady Buc Track Team and the Lady Buc Tennis Team did well in their respective state tournaments this past weekend. Coach Emily Walker's Track Team finished fourth behind first place Tennessee, second place Memphis State and third place Austin Peay. Kim Harrell of ETSU finished first in the high jump with a jump of 5-9.

ETSU's Linda Millman took second place in the javelin with a throw of 116-4. The Bucs took second place in the 400 meter low hurdles with Roverta Barrels' time of

64.6. The meet was in Clarksville. The Lady Buc Team, coached by Abney, also finished. The girls played next year I feel

THE STROM BREWERY COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN © 1978

Positive Think!
Boost Unhappy

If you concentrate rather than characteristics of your marriage can't more fulfilling, more counselors agree. Improve your m